BATTLE PRACTICE

Fleets Continue Evolutions on Southern Drill Grounds With Good Results.

GUNNERY WORK A FEATURE

Final Results of Wireless Tests Are Awaited With Greatest /Interest.

Special to The Times-Dispatch. J NORFOLK, VA., August 31.—The fleets to-day continued their battle practice, deep sea evolutions and ma-noquyres on the Southern drill

The choppy sea and rough water conditions which reappeared yesterday after a week's calm were just what was desired.

With a wind velocity from the east of twenty miles an hour, the ocean swell continued throughout the day, and the ships underwent severe strains of all kinds that were on the sched-ule for the evolutions in these wa-

Gunnery Work Satisfactory.

The skies were bright, and the absence of all haze made the gunnery work of the day highly satisfactory.

The dismantled torpedo-boats Nicholson and O'Brien, fitted up as actual targets for the vessels of the fleet in battle practice, were both towed out from the Norfolk Navy-Yard to-day and Joined the fleet on the drill grounds.

AMUSEMENTS

Academy-Matinee and night, "The Land of Nod." Lubin-Continuance Vaudeville.

One of the most beautiful chorus ensembles in this season's production of "The Land of Nod," which comes to the Academy to-day matinee and night, is called "The Sunburst." It night, is called "The Sunburst." It represents the "Rory Bory Alice." The effect is obtained by an arch twenty-two feet high, which is completely packed with chorus girls in costumes made to represent the rays of the sun, Nearly 1,000 electric lights are used in this effect alone.

"The Substitute."

"The Substitute."

Max Figman, who is one of the South's greatest favorites, opens his annual local engagement at the Academy Friday night in his new comedy; "The Substitute."

"The Henrietta."

Joseph and William W. Jefferson have engaged a company of eminent actors to support them in "The Hensietta," the famous comedy by Bronson Howard, which comes to the Academy Saturday matinee and night. Good Bill at Lubin.

The company at the Lubin Theatrs this week includes a number of exceptionally clever people, the bill as a whole being one of the best of the season. Wink and Davis, Georgie Nelson and Howard and Wilson are the star performers. New pictures are especially attractive.

CUTTING DOWN EXPENSES

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 31.—A step in the direction of retrenhment in the government service has been taken by Postmaster-Geoeral Hitchcock in by Postmuster-General Hitchcock in renewing contracts for supplying his department with typewriters.

Under the new contracts several well-known standard machines may be purchased by the department at a cost that will enable postmasters to be supplied with four machines, at about the price hitherto paid for three.

Postmasters will have two grades of machines from which to order, one representing the large carriage essential for work on money order blanks and another which will include the types writers especially adapted to correspondence.
